

COVID19 Safety Cube Model

As the number of individuals increases, with less distancing, and greater time together, the potential for COVID19 virus spread increases without mitigation efforts of six feet separation and/or the use of masks.